

13 BEST WAYS TO HELP STUDENTS WHO STRUGGLE WITH READING COMPREHENSION

1

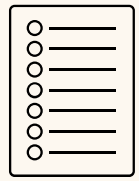

Focus on comprehension in auditory communication.

Use specific "guiding" questions. These will help students know what they should be comprehending.

2

3

Make a list for students to see what they should be gleaning.

Start with small content and work your way up.

4

5

Have frequent "mini quizzes" to increase students' comfort level.

Start with easier concepts and increase complexity with mastery.

6

Start with books below students' reading level.

Have materials for every student's interest.

8

9

Make sure students don't feel rushed.

Encourage note-taking.

10

11

Encourage visualization of texts.

Have students summarize: both auditory and written.

12

13

Involve as many senses as possible during text discussion.
